How We Collect and Use Information

IDLUN-USA.COM (dba "IDLUN International, LLC," "The Company") is the sole owner of the information collected on idlun.com website. The Company will not sell or share this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this policy.

Application Form

The Company may request information from the user on the application form. The user must provide contact information (name, mailing address, and email address) or any other information as the Company may deem necessary for processing of the user's application. This information is used to contact the applicant regarding the services on our website which they have expressed interest in. This information is also used for billing purposes and in the event of any problems or concerns for which the Company may need to contact the user. This information uses HTTPS for encrypted and secure data transmission.

Log Files

We use IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track user's movement, and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.

Sharing

IDLUN-USA.COM (dba "IDLUN International, LLC"), its associates, affiliates or employees do not share any aggregated demographic or personal information collected on its users with any outside parties.

Security

The Company takes every precaution to protect its users' information. When users submit sensitive information on idlun.com, their information is protected both online and off line. The application form and payment sections are encrypted with HTTPS technology. If you have any questions about the security at idlun.com website, you may contact us by email at info@idlun-usa.com with subject "Website Security Question."

Notification of Changes

The Company reserves all rights to change its privacy policy at any time. Should the privacy policy be changed, the Company will post those changes on its Home page. In addition, the Company's users may receive an e-mail at discretion of the Company informing their users of what changes to the privacy policy should be taking place. If at any point the Company decides to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, the Company will notify its users via email. The Company will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.
